Dried Sea Buckthorn Berries

Product data sheet · revision 17 Oct 2026

SKU	HR-SB-B01
Also known as	dried seabuckthorn berries, sea berry, Hippophae rhamnoides, Leh berry
Category	Sea Buckthorn | Dried Fruit Ingredient
Origin	High-altitude Uttarakhand, India
Form	Whole dried berries
Grade	Food and ingredient grade
Processing	Dried whole berries; final moisture confirmed per batch
Moisture	Set per batch and confirmed in the certificate of analysis
Packaging and pack sizes	Vacuum bulk / retail pouch; pack sizes 5 kg / 10 kg / 100 g. Private-label formats confirmed on enquiry
Minimum order	100 KG
Shelf life	Typically 12 to 24 months, sealed, cool and dry place
HS code	Confirmed per shipment with the customs broker (classification depends on form and declared use)
Lead time	Typically 1 to 2 weeks for ready stock, 2 to 4 weeks packed to order, 4 to 6 weeks for private label, from order confirmation and before sea freight. Confirmed in the quotation
Documentation	Batch documentation available on request
Trade terms	FOB, CIF, CFR or EXW, confirmed in the written quotation

Analytical values. Moisture, microbiological and other test values depend on the batch. They are issued as a certificate of analysis for the batch you order. Ask for it with your quotation.

How to order. Send the SKU, quantity, destination country and preferred trade terms. We reply with a written quotation, including price, lead time and available documents.

Himalayan Region™ · Flat A-3, Block A, Antas Avenue, Shahashradhara Road, Vishwanath Enclave, Dehradun, Uttarakhand 248013, India office@himalayanregion.com · WhatsApp +91 70608 98886 · www.himalayanregion.com

Values marked typically are market-reference ranges for this type of product, not a guarantee. The specification, shelf life, HS code and lead time that apply to an order are the ones confirmed in writing for that batch and destination.